

Tunnel collapse: Experts to now try 'trenchless' method

AVANEESH MISHRA
Uttarkashi, NOVEMBER 14

AFTER LARGE EXCAVATORS could not clear the rubble blocking an under-construction tunnel in Uttarkashi where 40 workers are trapped, rescuers are now using a "trenchless" technique, putting together passages made of mild steel pipes right through the debris so the men can crawl out.

It was around 5.30 am on Sunday that the under-construction tunnel on the Yamunotri National Highway, meant to connect Silkyara and Dandalgaon in Uttarakhand's Uttarkashi district, collapsed.

While officials say the men are safe - communication has been established via walkie-talkies and they are being supplied food and oxygen via a pipe meant to supply water - two and a half days have elapsed since they got trapped.

According to a statement issued by the state government, consultations are being held with experts of the National Highways Authority of India, Rail Vikas Nigam Limited, National Housing and Construction Limited, L&T, Tehri Hydro Development Corporation, Border Roads Organisation, and National Highways & Infrastructure Development Corporation Ltd.

In the first two days, the plan to remove debris using heavy excavator machines, and prevent more debris from falling using the "shotcrete method", has only been partially successful. Under shotcreting, as soon as debris is removed, concrete is shot at high pressure to prevent more from falling.

Rescue operations underway after a portion of an under-construction tunnel between Silkyara and Dandalgaon on the Brahmakhal-Yamunotri national highway collapsed, in Uttarkashi district on Tuesday.

Along with this, on the advice of the experts, efforts were being made to prepare a safe passage to reach the trapped laborers by removing the debris and installing setting plates, but more debris that kept falling from the upper part of the tunnel hampered the plan.

Under the new plan, the "trenchless" technique is being used to create a passage through 900 mm wide mild steel (MS) pipes. An auger machine, which consists of a helical screw blade known as an auger, attached to a rotating shaft, is already inside the tunnel. On Tuesday evening, construction and priming work of the platform of the auger drilling machine was being completed, and other equipment was being assembled on the frame.

The basic principle behind its operation involves a spiral

Poll panel notice to Kejriwal, Priyanka for remarks on PM

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, November 14

THE ELECTION COMMISSION on Tuesday issued a show-cause notice to Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) chief Arvind Kejriwal for alleged disparaging remarks made by the party against the prime minister on its social media handle and asked him to respond to the charge of poll code violation by November 16.

The notice has been issued in the name of the national convener of the AAP, Delhi chief minister Arvind Kejriwal is the national convener of the AAP, which is in power in Delhi and Punjab.

The BJP had on November 10 approached the Election Commission and demanded action against the AAP for posting "very unacceptable" and "unethical" video clip and remarks on a social media platform targeting Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

The AAP on Wednesday last had posted a video story on 'X' featuring industrialist Gautam Adani and Prime Minister Modi. The next day, the party posted a picture of Adani and Modi, and alleged that the prime minister works for the industrialist and not the people.

In its notice to the AAP, the Election Commission stated, "...the present alleged matter has been found to be posted from the handle of the Aam Aadmi Party itself, which being a national party is expected to exercise caution through verification of facts before publishing and disseminating such content in public domain." A BJP delegation, comprising Union minister Hardeep Singh Puri, party national media in-charge and Rajya Sabha member Anil Baluni and party leader Om Pathak, approached the poll panel on the issue.

Separately, the poll panel on Tuesday issued a show-cause notice to Congress leader Priyanka Gandhi Vadra for allegedly making unverified and false statements with regard to the Prime Minister.

Acting on a complaint made by the BJP that she had made "false" and "unverified" statements against Modi at an election rally in Madhya Pradesh recently, the poll panel asked her to explain her statements by 8 pm on Thursday.

In its representation to the poll panel, the BJP had accused Priyanka Gandhi of making a "baseless and false" claim that the Narendra Modi government had privatised public sector undertakings (PSUs).

She had purportedly alleged that Prime Minister Modi had given away PSU BHEL to his industrialist friends.

This is the second EC notice issued to Priyanka Gandhi in the ongoing assembly polls in five states.

Modi wraps up MP campaign

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Jhabua, November 14

PRIME MINISTER NARENDRA Modi on Tuesday said the Congress was not in contention in Madhya Pradesh and heading for a "shameful defeat" in polls and slammed his rival party for treating tribals just as a vote-bank as he wrapped up his campaign rallies in the state.

Capping his whirlwind election tour of the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP)-ruled state, Modi addressed a rally in tribal-dominated Jhabua district, his third of the day, and reached out to advisers whose support is crucial for the saffron party in its bid to retain power.

In the last few weeks, Modi has addressed a series of election rallies, sometimes three meetings in a day, in support of BJP candidates.

"The atmosphere which I have seen in entire Madhya Pradesh clearly shows the lotus (the BJP symbol) is going to boom. I do not see the Congress in the game. It is heading for a shameful defeat. People will choose development and elect the BJP when they vote on November 17. The Congress will face a crushing defeat," he said, speaking at the rally on the penultimate day of campaigning.

He said that in the tribal belt of Gujarat, the Congress was wiped out in the last elections.

"Wherever the Congress goes, its spoils (the state where it is in power)," said the BJP's star campaigner, reaching out to indigenous people and cautioning them against the Grand Old Party.

The PM maintained tribal community members were very angry with the Congress in Madhya Pradesh, Chhattisgarh and Rajasthan (the last two states are also facing polls), but they were happy with the BJP as it works for their development.

Assam CM takes jibe at Baghel

ASSAM CHIEF MINISTER

Himanta Biswa Sarma on Tuesday attacked his Chhattisgarh counterpart Bhupesh Baghel over the alleged 'Mahadev' betting app scam and said Lord Mahadev will not spare him and seek account of every single penny.

The BJP leader accused the ruling Congress of having a nexus with Naxalites and claimed "rampant" religious conversion was going on in the tribal-dominated state.

ED has claimed it has recorded a statement of a 'cash courier' who alleged Mahadev betting app promoters have paid ₹508 crore to Baghel till now, and that it is a 'subject matter of investigation'. —PTI
