

ED seizes Choksi firm's jewellery worth ₹85 cr brought from Dubai

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, May 17

THE ENFORCEMENT DIRECTORATE (ED) on Thursday said it has seized over 34,000 pieces of jewellery worth ₹85 crore from Gitanjali Group, owned by diamondaire Mehul Choksi, in connection with the ₹13,000-crore Punjab National Bank (PNB) fraud case.

The agency said the jewellery was "brought from Dubai" and has been seized under the Regulation of Money Laundering Act (PMLA). "ED seizes over 34,000 pieces of jewellery worth ₹85 crore under PMLA of the Mehul Choksi-controlled Gitanjali Group brought from Dubai," it said in a statement.

Choksi, along with his nephew and millionaire designer jeweller Nirav Modi, is being investigated by the ED for allegedly defrauding PNB, the country's second largest lender.

Modi, Choksi and others are being investigated by the ED as well as other probe agencies after the fraud came to light this year following a complaint by the PNB.
