Parliament is temple of country's democracy: Prez on ruckus, disruptions

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, August 14

PRESIDENT RAM NATH Kovind on Saturday said Parliament is the "temple of the country's democracy" which provides the highest forum to discuss, debate and decide issues for the well-being of people, remarks that came against the backdrop of the recent ruckus and continuous disruptions that led to the abrupt adjournment of the two Houses.

In a televised address to the nation on the eve of the 75th Independence Day, the President also referred to the second COVID-19 wave, and said the country is yet to come out of its devastating effects. He asserted this is the time for extra care and caution, and people should not let their guard down.

President Kovind also sought to address the concerns raised by protesting farmers' unions against the three contentious farm laws, saying the series of agricultural marketing reforms will empower our 'annadata' farmers and help them get better price for their produce. Referring to the recently concluded Tokyo Olympics, he lauded the "stellar" performance by the country's sportspersons.

President Kovind said when India won independence, many sceptics thought democracy would not survive in India.

"Little did they know that roots of democracy were nurtured in this soil in ancient times, and even in modern times India was ahead of many western nations in offering franchise to all adults, regardless of any distinctions."

The founding fathers had reposed their faith in the wisdom of the people, and "we, the people of India have made India a strong democracy, he added. "We have adopted the system of parliamentary democracy. Therefore, our Parliament is the temple of our democracy which provides us highest forum where we discuss, debate and decide issues for the well-being of our people," the President said. The government and the opposition parties had traded charges over the abrupt end of the Monsoon session which was marred by continuous disruptions since it commenced on July 19.

Petronet LNG reports 22% rise in net profit to ₹636 crore

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, August 14

INDIA'S LARGEST GAS importer Petronet LNG reported a 22.2% year-on-year rise (y-o-y) in net profit to ₹635.7 crore on a stand-alone basis for the quarter ended June 30.

Revenue in the fiscal increased 75% y-o-y to ₹8,666.4 crore while expenses — mostly cost of buying gas — increased by 83.7% to ₹7,815.3 crore in the same period. Finance cost fell 9.2% to ₹80.3 crore annually.

The overall liquefied natural gas (LNG) volume processed by the company in Q1FY22 was 209 trillion British thermal units (TBTU), compared to 190 TBTU in the corresponding quarter last year. The Dahej terminal itself processed 194 TBTU in Q1FY22 of LNG as against 181 TBTU in Q1FY21.

With the government's focus of increasing the share of gas in the energy basket, Petronet expects the transportation sector to adapt to LNG owing to its cost-effectiveness.
