

MCD puts on hold election to special, ad hoc committees

Times News Network

New Delhi: Municipal Corporation of Delhi has postponed the election for 21 special and ad hoc committees, which was scheduled to take place on July 10.

MCD announced the election on June 26, with the last date for filing nomination being July 3. However, a circular issued on Wednesday stated that the election was put on hold for some reasons. "With reference to this notice, the nomination of members for election... stands withdrawn, as per the mayor's order. The next date for filing nomination and conduct of the election... will be notified as and when finalised," stated the notice.

The special panels include the appointments, promotions, disciplinary and allied matters committee, works committee, Medical Relief and Public Health Committee, environment management services, garden committee, law and general purposes committee, high powered property taxes committee, and the Finance committee.

The ad hoc committees include education, health, environment management services, licences and regulatory, community services, anti-malaria measures, grievance redressal and anti-flood measures. "These committees usually make decisions on projects that need to be executed on priority in their sectors and approach the standing committee for the allocation of the budget accordingly," said an official. "Usually, the number of committees applying for member posts for each committee is equivalent to the number of seats available. If more committees apply, the election is done through proportionate voting," he added.

The education committee has seven members and three of them, mostly experts in the field, are nominated. In each committee, the members elect the chairman and the deputy chairman.

Fire near AIIMS Trauma Centre

New Delhi: A blast followed by a fire in a transformer, located near Trauma Centre of AIIMS was reported on Thursday. A DFR official said, "No one was injured in the incident. 'We rushed eight fire tenders to the spot. The fire was doused by 3:55 pm.' DFRS chief Anil Garg said. anil.garg@delhi.gov.in
